

Exhibit B — 1999 Underlying Case Docket Sheets

EXHIBIT B

1999 UNDERLYING CASE DOCKETS

B-1. CP-02-CR-0009208-1999 (Court of Common Pleas — Allegheny County)

Case Caption: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. James D. Bell

Docket Number: CP-02-CR-0009208-1999

County: Allegheny

Court: Court of Common Pleas

Summary of Relevance:

- This is the primary criminal case leading to the 2002 sentencing.
- No Megan's Law obligations appear anywhere in the docket.
- No reference to sexual offender registration.
- No SVP designation.
- No court order imposing registration.

Included Items:

- Full docket listing
- Charge history
- Disposition history

- Sentencing entries

This docket establishes the statutory framework applicable to Petitioner in 1999–2002 and confirms no legal basis for PSP’s later classification.

B-2. MJ-05214-CR-0004803-1999 (Magisterial District Court)

Docket Number: MJ-05214-CR-0004803-1999

Court: Magisterial District Court (MDJ 05214)

Summary of Relevance:

- Originating docket associated with the underlying 1999 case.
- Contains early procedural entries.
- Confirms that neither the charging documents nor initial court actions referenced Megan’s Law obligations.

This docket provides a foundational record supporting the fact that, from start to finish, the case proceeded outside the scope of Megan’s Law registration requirements.

B-3. Summary Conclusion (Exhibit B)

The 1999 dockets collectively establish that:

- Petitioner’s case proceeded under ordinary criminal procedure.
- No statutory or judicial mechanism invoked Megan’s Law.
- Nothing in the official record supports registration.

- PSP's 2004 administrative classification contradicts the court's record.

Therefore:

These dockets affirm Petitioner's conviction was not a Megan's Law offense.
