Hello Lea,

I was just checking in with you since it's been 7 months since we last corresponded with one another. I'm guessing it's still a wait your turn to see the judges' situation? Then the Covid19 dilemma held everything back a few months. How much longer do you expect this to take? One nice thing is everyone has stopped asking me for updates

We're less than 2 months away from our 3-year anniversary. :-)

I hope I'm sending this to the correct email address.
