This intensity could be enviable, but u bark up the wrong tree! Please, tell me honestly, ur hand is not tired yet? Get some rest from this more often. U jerk so actively, as though this's a new type of sports and u train. I just don't get, how you haven't ripped your dick off yet pleasuring yourself so heavily! I'm assured, if you dedicated as much time and effort as you spent on wanking to basketball, u could have become the new Michael Jordan long ago. The stuff you practice in your spare time doesn't interest me, but there're people who will be interested in it... I think I'll search for them among the contacts from ur email. You are not attentive with ur security, hide at least the cam of your device in future. I was not very pleased when have accessed to ur camera, in all honesty, it's not the most enjoyable show, but, as u might have got, I have shot ur video.

I received this the other day. Last few days a lot of things happened. My Google Home was deleted not by me. I got this email. Someone logged into my laptop and the name was Mark Missions. I knew something was going on and I was not just paranoid. I've had these feeling for a long time and it all started when I noticed everyone noticing me when I was around after looking at their phones almost 2 years ago.

I tried to download more clips from tonight to send to you but they were taking forever and then said they were too big. I sent you a share invitaitnon for that camera on Wyze. That and the back yard cam were the only two online because of the Google Home being deleted. i didn't have a chance to set all the others up again.
